NEBC's New President

Rev. Richard Francis

President Elect Francis will begin his duties at the college in January 2007. For the past four years NEBC has been operating under the interim leadership of Dr. Jack Christensen who sought to be a bridge builder between the past and future presidents. Dr. Christensen is "excited about the opportunity to hand the reins over to Rick, being confident that the school will move forward."

Rev. Francis comes to NEBC with experience in both business and pastoral ministry, and has served on NEBC's Board of Trustees. During that time he impressed the trustees and staff of NEBC with his capacity for leadership and financial management, as well as his vision for the future. That vision involves first, a commitment to have NEBC stay focused as a Bible College, and second, a zeal to see NEBC grow its student body ten-fold, and to have its own campus in the next ten years.

Rev. Francis:

- ◆ Senior Pastor at Fellowship Bible Church in Chester, NH (10 years)
- ◆ Former Director of Operations at United Co-operative Farmers in Fitchburg, MA
- ◆ B.S. in Business Administration (UMass-Lowell)
- ◆ M.A. in Biblical Studies (Trinity Theological Seminary)
- ◆ NEBC Board of Trustees (2001-2005)
- ◆ Married to Heather for 34 years (3 daughters).

Prayer Corner:

- ⇒ Please pray for Rev. Francis's preparation for leadership, and for the transition fund (now at 45%)
- ⇒ Tuition Assistance Program. Funds go directly to help the students with the greatest need.
