

New England Bible College

presents:

Practical Christianity:

What Does the Bible Say about Living in Difficult Times?

Saturday, November 1, 2008

First Baptist Church, South Portland

8:00 AM-12:15 PM

Keynote by Rev. Richard Francis
NEBC President

6 Workshops including:

- Biblical Stewardship in the Material World
- Conflicts in Relationships: How to Fight Fair
- Living in Difficult Times Without The Gospel

10 Workshop leaders:

- Banking Senior VP
- Clinical Counselor
- 6 NEBC alumni!

Coffee and Pastries will be served
Registration is $20 ($10 for students)
Heavenly Pages bookstore resource table

For more information:
1.800.286.1859 or
www.nebc.edu

New England Bible College

presents:

Practical Christianity:

What Does the Bible Say about Living in Difficult Times?

Saturday, November 1, 2008

First Baptist Church, South Portland

8:00 AM-12:15 PM

Keynote by Rev. Richard Francis
NEBC President

6 Workshops including:

- Biblical Stewardship in the Material World
- Conflicts in Relationships: How to Fight Fair
- Living in Difficult Times Without The Gospel

10 Workshop leaders:

- Banking Senior VP
- Clinical Counselor
- 6 NEBC alumni!

Coffee and Pastries will be served
Registration is $20 ($10 for students)
Heavenly Pages bookstore resource table

For more information:
1.800.286.1859 or
www.nebc.edu

New England Bible College has been a state accredited, degree granting, higher education institution since 1980. Founded as New England Baptist Bible College, NEBC has grown into an interdenominational training ground for hundreds of Evangelical Christians. Located in South Portland, ME, NEBC draws a commuter student body from central and southern Maine, New Hampshire, and other regions within New England. Today, NEBC, under the direction of President Richard Francis and Dean Peter Hasbrouck, employs 2 full time faculty, 10 adjunct faculty, a small administrative staff, and has approximately 50 students. NEBC has granted over 80 Baccalaureate degrees, Associates degrees, and dozens of Bible Certificates. New England Bible College exists for the purpose of producing graduates who are taught and equipped by the Word of God, gifted and empowered by the Spirit of God, and trained and prepared by the servants of God.

New England Bible College
Alumni Association

879 Sawyer St
P.O. Box 2886
South Portland, Maine 14106-2886

Phone: 207-799-5979 or 1-866-529-NEBC
Fax: 207-799-6586
Email: info@nebc.edu

New England Bible College has been a state accredited, degree granting, higher education institution since 1980. Founded as New England Baptist Bible College, NEBC has grown into an interdenominational training ground for hundreds of Evangelical Christians. Located in South Portland, ME, NEBC draws a commuter student body from central and southern Maine, New Hampshire, and other regions within New England. Today, NEBC, under the direction of President Richard Francis and Dean Peter Hasbrouck, employs 2 full time faculty, 10 adjunct faculty, a small administrative staff, and has approximately 50 students. NEBC has granted over 80 Baccalaureate degrees, Associates degrees, and dozens of Bible Certificates. New England Bible College exists for the purpose of producing graduates who are taught and equipped by the Word of God, gifted and empowered by the Spirit of God, and trained and prepared by the servants of God.

New England Bible College
Alumni Association

879 Sawyer St
P.O. Box 2886
South Portland, Maine 14106-2886

Phone: 207-799-5979 or 1-866-529-NEBC
Fax: 207-799-6586
Email: info@nebc.edu

